Cheesesteaks and hot dogs and pizza oh my!

We all have our preferred places to get our favorite foods. Maybe it's what we were raised on or maybe it's our neighborhood shop that we just can't live without? No matter the case we all secretly rate the foods we eat and calculate which burger or slice reigns supreme. Coffee snobs, breakfast hounds and ice cream junkies have been plotting their favorite stops for years and now we finally have the inside track on where to go for the best. We've scoured the county to pick the top nominees in each category and left the tough part up to you, the readers. Here's your guide to the best foods in Chester County.

Winery

Sales - Tasting - Tours

Visit our picturesque estate winery established in 1985. Stroll the grounds of our 30 acres of vineyards and stop in our beautifully restored 19th century bank barn, which houses state-of-the-art wine-making facilities and our rustically elegant tasting/sales room.

Taste our family of fine wines, including varietals made from vinifera and French-American hybrid grapes, as well as delicate blends. Our wines are made with the utmost of care and attention to detail. All phases of winemaking from harvesting, crushing and fermentation to barrel aging and bottling take place on the premises.

Enjoy Twin Brook all four seasons; venture into our cellar during Barrels on the Brandywine in March, picnic on our beautiful grounds, dance during our summer concert series, experience harvest in the fall. We are also a unique venue for private parties, corporate gatherings and other celebrations.

Destination Chester County

Chester County is quickly becoming even more of a culinary destination despite the current economy, with new restaurants opening in each corner of the county. As suburbs to Philadelphia, each area of Chester County reflects that influence resulting in a melting pot of international fare and culinary trends hitting closer and closer to home. Not only are new talents popping up in the kitchens of Chester County but there is an abundance of local food producers reminding us that our county is known as "the bread basket of Philadelphia." Chester County is rich in wealth and prime agricultural soils giving unlimited potential to how far the local food scene can really go. Be it fine dining or a small corner deli, there are amazing bites to be had countywide. Here is a list of what our residents told us are the best restaurants in Chester County.

With a surge of Thai restaurants popping up this year it's been a close race to see who our readers voted the Best Thai in Chester County. With over 10 Thai restaurants nominated, West Chester's Jazmine's Thai took first place, after being in business a little less than one year.

We lucked out this year with a balmy summer and delicious crisp fall weather so we had to have you vote on your favorite spots to dine al fresco. The Four Dog's Tavern won the best spot for enjoying the Chester County air with the famous rooftop at Coyote Crossing and the courtyard at Barnaby's coming in as a close second and third.

What some of the winners have to say ...

Jazmine's Thai

“Best Thai” in Chester County
Co-owner Josh Morton

"I'd like to thank all the kind people of Chester County that are willing to try something new and embrace a new cuisine. We've been here less than a year and have had a very warm reception and we are thrilled to be part of this community."

Carlino's Specialty Foods and Catering

“Best Catering” in Chester County
Phyllis Petrasso, General Manager

"We've been so excited since we heard. We will keep up with our quality of food and service and we thank the people of Chester County for making us number one for catering."

Ron's Original Bar and Grille

“Best Family Dining”
Owner Ron Inverso

"We recently put a lot of effort into the re-design of the interior and the menu to make it more accessible for families, couples and the nightlife crowd. I pride myself in the quality of the food by having a "made from scratch" mentality which is great for our customers and their families. I appreciate the support of our customers and am thrilled with the recognition they helped us achieve. We really work hard to be the best and I'm glad Chester County thinks so too."

Pig Out BBQ

“Best BBQ/Southern Cooking/Comfort Food”
Tony Scheirer, Owner

"I owe all the credit of our win to my southern wife because she couldn't get good BBQ in this area so we made our own. I would like to thank everyone that voted for us. Good news for our customers and fans is that you can now get the "Best BBQ in Chester County" delivered by ordering online. Thank you Chester County!"

Thomasene's Pizza

“Best Pizza”
Co-owner, Mike Thomasene

"We are delighted to have such a presence in this community after being open just over a year. Our customers like what we make and we can't thank them enough for their votes to make us number one in Chester County for pizza. It's really exciting."

What some of the readers have to say ...

“I think it’s really cool that with technology today customers are able to vote on what they really love. I personally love the burgers at Iron Hill and aside from the fact that I can tell my friends how much I love them now I was able to vote for them as the best! I’m really excited about the Chester County Cuisine and Nightlife awards and am looking forward to seeing who wins next year.

- Nick, West Chester

“WC Dish and the Daily Local really rocked the vote. With great feedback from the locals “in the know” not only give props to the establishments we know and love, but also shine the light on the ones we have yet to discover. Thanks for taking the time to see how the people feel and not just naming your own personal favs. Great Work!”

- Beau, West Chester

“I’ve always wondered how people win “The Best” in different areas. Who says they are the best? I love these new awards because I get to say what I think is the best and so do all of my friends. It’s an honest voting of what people think is the best. The winners deserve that.”

- Sarah, Kennett

“I enjoyed how I got to pick from many different categories with a large selection to choose from. I like that my opinion matters and can help give restaurants bragging rights to being the best.”

- Brett, Downingtown
