WEDDING FORM

The Mercury is pleased to publish an account of your wedding. Please keep in mind that we will use the information you provide to prepare your write-up, so we ask that you take care in completing this form. Please type or print clearly, and be sure to provide all information requested, giving first and last names and full addresses in all instances. An incomplete or illegible form can cause errors and delays in publication.

Color or black and white photographs are accepted. Please provide a good quality print or digital file.

Cost for publication of a wedding package is $35. Package includes printed announcement, online announcement, and two additional copies of The Mercury from the day your announcement is printed.

Wedding announcements are published on Sundays only.

Wedding Party: Etiquette dictates that married women in the wedding party are most properly identified as Mrs. John Doe, not Mrs. Jane Doe. Some brides, however, prefer a less formal approach, listing attendants simply as Jane Doe, Sally Smith, etc. The Mercury will accept either formal or casual designations, however consistency must be maintained throughout. If the casual form of address is used, please indicate whether the bride's honor attendant is maid of honor (never married) or matron of honor (currently or formerly married). In noting family relationships, please specify clearly whether the member of the wedding is related to the bride or the bridegroom, such as "brother of the bride." Simply writing "brother" is not sufficient.
